

Drunk Driving

is a Crime in Japan!

DUI&DWI

DWI

A driver who is impaired/disoriented his/her driving performance due to intoxication

Maximum punishment imprisonment with hard labor
not more than 5 years or a fine not more than 1,000,000 yen

DUI

A driver with the result of breathalyzer test showing the legal limit of 0.15 mg per liter or greater in the exhaled breath

Maximum punishment imprisonment with hard labor
not more than 3 years or a fine not more than 500,000 yen

Definition of DWI & DUI

A driver who is impaired/disoriented his/her driving performance due to intoxication, who is neither able to work straight nor speak clearly, is subject to the charge of DWI

The charge of DUI will be applied when the result of breathalyzer test shows the legal limit of 0.15 mg per liter or greater in the exhaled breath regardless of not being of drunk condition

Refusal of breathalyzer

Anyone refusing the test or obstructing the performance of public duties by police officer conducting the test, is subject to the charge

Maximum punishment imprisonment with hard labor not more than 3 months or a fine not more than 500,000 yen

Drunk Driving

is a Crime in Japan!

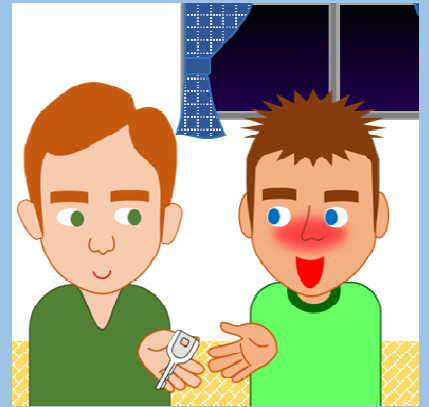

To offer a car to a person who may drive drunk

In the event of the driver is DWI

Maximum punishment imprisonment with hard labor
not more than 5 years or a fine not more than 1,000,000 yen

In the event of the driver is DUI

Maximum punishment imprisonment with hard labor
not more than 3 years or a fine not more than 500,000 yen

To offer alcoholic beverages to a person who may drive drunk

In the event of the driver is DWI

Maximum punishment imprisonment with hard labor
not more than 3 years or a fine not more than 500,000 yen

In the event of the driver is DUI

Maximum punishment imprisonment with hard labor
not more than 2 years or a fine not more than 300,000 yen

As a passenger to be aware that the driver is under the influence of alcohol and you ask for or request a ride.

In the event of the driver is DWI

Maximum punishment imprisonment with hard labor
not more than 3 years or a fine not more than 500,000 yen

In the event of the driver is DUI

Maximum punishment imprisonment with hard labor
not more than 2 years or a fine not more than 300,000 yen

